The poster features a light purple background with white starbursts. At the top, there are two large white bunny ears. Below them, a white banner with a torn edge contains the text 'Easter Day' in a purple cursive font. The background is decorated with several colorful Easter eggs: a yellow one with red flowers, a white one with green and pink spots, and another white one with green spots. In the bottom right corner, a white cartoon bunny is peeking over a grassy area with several decorated eggs (yellow with red flowers, blue with white patterns, red with white flowers, white with green spots, and green with yellow flowers).
